

Waterloo, IA – Today, Congressman Bruce Braley (IA-01) released the following statement in advance of President Obama’s speech on Libya:

“The American people deserve a clear and accurate answer about the cost of the Libyan conflict,” said Rep. Braley. “I’ve been asking for accountability and for the cost of this conflict since last week and I look forward to hearing the President answer those questions tonight.”

A copy of Rep. Braley’s letter is available here: <http://go.usa.gov/2K2>